

How to submit a review on Amazon

Important: Before you can post a review, you need to have an Amazon.com account that has successfully been charged for the purchase of a physical or digital item. Free digital downloads don't qualify. You don't need to have purchased the product you're reviewing. There's a 48-hour waiting period after your first physical order has been completely shipped, or your digital item has been purchased, before you'll be able to submit your review. If you've purchased a digital gift for someone else, the 48-hour waiting period doesn't begin until the gift has been redeemed.

To submit a review:

- *You will need to be signed in to your account on Amazon.com
- *Go to the product detail page for the item on Amazon.com.
- *Under the title click on “(#) customer reviews”
- *Click “Write a customer review”
- *At the upper right corner, you may choose to use your real name or a nom de plume.
- *At “How is the author’s writing?”, click “great” and scroll down to the stars (click 5).
- *Write the review in the space provided.
- *Click Submit.
